

PRIVACY POLICY

OVERVIEW

This Web Privacy Policy outlines how Digiquest Academy deals with personal information which we collect in relation to our website. Users of our website are entitled to expect that any information collected will be treated within the terms of the Digiquest privacy responsibilities and obligations.

WHAT IS PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Personal information includes any information or opinion about an identified individual or an individual who is reasonably identifiable from the information or opinion.

What information do we collect automatically?

When you look at the Digiquest website, our computers record your visit and log the following information for statistical purposes:

- The Internet Protocol address from which we receive the request
- The date and time our server received the request
- The pages, documents and files you requested
- The address of the resource which provided the link followed, if any, to The Digiquest Academy or any of its associate website.
- The type of browser and, in some cases, the operating system used
- In some cases, data you send to our website from web forms (e.g. search terms).

What other information do we collect?

Some sections of our website may request general personal information about you, for example, if you request a brochure, or complete a survey. Such information includes your email and other contact details.

We may also collect information which you voluntarily disclose online (eg through Graduate Submissions, discussion boards, chat areas etc).

You should not disclose information about yourself, which you consider to be sensitive, unless you are comfortable sharing this information with us and other users. If you are worried about the sensitivity of information that you are posting online, please do not use these areas of the website.

If you provide personal information about someone else on our website, you must ensure that you have their express consent or are otherwise entitled to disclose that information to Digiquist Academy. You must ensure that, without Digiquist Academy taking any further steps required by privacy laws, we may collect, process, use and disclose such information for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy. For example, you should take reasonable steps to ensure the individual concerned is aware of the various matters detailed in this Privacy Policy, including Digiquist Academy identity and how to contact us, the circumstances in which the information has been collected by Digiquist Academy, the purposes for which Digiquist Academy collects personal information, Digiquist Academy's information disclosure practices and that this Privacy Policy contains information about how the individual may access and seek correction of the information Digiquist Academy holds about them. You must make sure that the individual provide to you the same consents as those set out in this Privacy Policy in respect of how Digiquist Academy will deal with their personal information.

Some sections of Digiquist Academy website use standard industry technologies, for example 'cookies', to make full use of the site.

WHAT DO WE DO WITH THE INFORMATION?

The anonymous information collected during each request is collated for analysis. It is then evaluated and published in reports that show Digiquist Academy usage patterns and identify popular areas of the website. This helps us to improve and develop the website and its services.

For security reasons, Digiquist Academy uses software programs to monitor network traffic and identify unauthorised attempts to upload or change information, or otherwise cause damage.

Digiquist Academy may collect your personal information for the primary purpose of providing our services or information to you. We may also use your personal information for purposes related or supplementary to the primary purpose of collection, including, to promote the services of Digiquist Academy or our related companies, or to allow our related companies to promote their services to you.

It is important to note that Digiquess Academy cannot control, and is not responsible for, the actions of other individuals with whom you share information through the website.

WHAT WE WON'T DO WITH THE INFORMATION?

Except as otherwise set out in this Privacy Policy, Digiquess Academy will not use or disclose your personal information to a third party unless we have your consent to do so, or as otherwise required or authorised to do so by law.

WHAT EXCEPTIONS ARE THERE TO THIS RULE?

Digiquess Academy will gather more extensive information than stated above in the following circumstances:

- Unauthorised attempts to access files other than those published on Digiquess Academy website
- Unauthorised tampering or interference with files published on Digiquess Academy website
- Unauthorised attempts by other websites to index the contents of Digiquess Academy website
- Attempts to intercept messages of other Digiquess Academy website users
- Communications which are defamatory, abusive, vilify individuals or groups or give rise to a suspicion that an offence is being committed
- Attempts to otherwise compromise the security of the Digiquess Academy web server or interfere with the use of the Digiquess Academy website by other users.

Digiquess Academy reserves the right to make disclosures to relevant authorities where the use of our website raises concern that an offence is being, or has been, committed.

In the unlikely event of an investigation, Digiquess Academy will provide data access to any law enforcement agency that may exercise a warrant to inspect Digiquess Academy logs.

WHO HAS ACCESS TO THE INFORMATION COLLECTED BY OUR WEBSITE?

Digiquest Academy captures web access information on its own computers.

Access to the raw data on the web server is restricted to a limited number of staff who analyse and report on the success of the website in order to meet Digiquest Academy's communication and access objectives.

Digiquest Academy uses third party service providers to help us to provide you with the website. These third party service providers include (but are not limited to): server hosts, data analysis specialists, and auditors.

These overseas entities and individuals may be subject to different privacy laws. You consent to us disclosing your information to entities located outside India for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy, on the basis that we are not required to ensure that any overseas recipient complies with India's privacy laws.

IS DATA STORED IN A SECURE WAY?

Digiquest Academy website has security measures in place to protect against loss, misuse and alteration of information under our control. However, no system is 100% secure. We meet legislative requirements regarding the security of the website. You acknowledge that we are not liable for any unauthorised use or disclosure of this information by any third parties, and that while Digiquest Academy takes reasonable steps to ensure its compliance with the Privacy Act, Digiquest Academy has no such liability for these third parties.

If you do not wish to use the Internet, you can contact Digiquest Academy by telephone, fax or mail.

HOW DO WE DEAL WITH INFORMATION REQUEST FORMS?

When you lodge an online request with Digiquest Academy inquiry services you provide us with personal information which may include your name, contact number, postal and email address. We collect and retain this information in order to respond to your inquiry and provide a service.

A record of your inquiry will also be collected for statistical purposes, to determine usage of our services and provide information for future improvements. Except as otherwise set out in this Privacy Policy, no personal details are provided to any other individual or organisation, and access to this information is restricted to Digiquest Academy staff and contractors responsible for delivery of the service or activity (for further information on this, please refer to the form of consent contained in the Information Request Form).

DO WE PUBLISH PERSONAL INFORMATION ON THIS WEBSITE?

Digiquest Academy will only publish personal information on this website (including any discussion board) if it has been collected for this purpose with your knowledge and consent.

When giving such consent you should be aware that information published on this website is accessible to millions of users from all over the world, that it will be indexed by search engines and that it may be copied and used by any web user. This means that once the information is published on this website, Digiquest Academy will have no control over its subsequent use and disclosure. Names and email addresses of Digiquest Academy staff appearing on this website are provided with their knowledge and consent.

Under no circumstances will Digiquest Academy sell or receive payment for licensing or disclosing your personal information.

WHAT ABOUT EXTERNAL LINKS?

This site contains links to other sites. Digiquest Academy is not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of such websites.

CAN I ACCESS AND CORRECT MY PERSONAL INFORMATION?

You have the right to access your personal information held by Digiquest Academy on request, subject to limited exceptions in the Privacy Act.

Digiquest Academy will take reasonable steps to ensure the personal information it collects, uses and discloses is accurate, complete, up-to-date and relevant.

You may request to access or amend your personal information by sending us an email to support@digiquestacademy.com

If you no longer wish to receive any communications, or want to be removed from any Digiquest Academy database, please contact by sending us an email to support@digiquestacademy.com

HOW DO I CONTACT YOU OR REPORT ANY VIOLATIONS?

If you have any questions about this Privacy Policy, or if you wish to report any violations of this Policy or the Privacy Act, please contact us by email to support@digiquest.in
